Fresh produce, arils and corn presentations

Choose the actual product form; whole fruit, prepared arils and vacuum-packed foods require separate review.

Seasonal fresh fruit

Confirm variety, harvest window, grade, carton and intended arrival date.

Seasonal Fresh Fruit Requests >

Pomegranate and prepared arils

Whole Bhagwa fruit and extracted MAP arils are distinct. Agree handling, validated shelf life and intended use; MAP alone does not establish ready-to-eat safety.

Pomegranate Arils (MAP) >

Vegetables and corn

Fresh and vacuum-packed are different presentations. For vacuum corn, confirm the actual cooking/preservation process, storage and preparation instructions.

Vacuum Packed Corn On Cob >

Red Onion and Seasonal Vegetables >

Chilli

Confirm origin, lot specification, heat/colour acceptance and required form. A catalogue name does not prove GI provenance.

Samba Chilli S-4 >

Fruit ingredients and preserved vegetables

Discuss the sample, formulation, preservation process, actual pack and intended application.

Pulps, concentrate and dried fruit

Alphonso and Totapuri mango pulp; pink and white guava pulp; concentrate and dried-mango listings. Confirm composition, filling process, net weight, storage and after-opening instructions.

Zapy Dried Mango >

Gherkins and jalapenos

Whole/sliced presentations can be discussed. Specify cut, brine or vinegar formulation, net/drained weight and retail or ingredient use. Custom diced cuts are requests, not confirmed stock.

Gherkins >

Jalapeno >

For food manufacturers

Share your intended beverage, sauce, bakery, ready-meal or other food application, together with the reference sample and measurable acceptance criteria. The export team can discuss the proposed ingredient, processor and documentation during quotation.

Frozen range and Rahis basmati rice

State the required product, process, pack and destination rather than relying on a general category name.

Frozen foods and IQF enquiries

Agree the cut, freezing method, cooking/treatment and intended use. Frozen or IQF presentation does not by itself prove ready-to-eat status. Confirm the temperature and cold-chain handover plan.

Rahis retail rice packs

Rahis is the company's own brand, manufactured through different mills. Pack names identify product lines, not a guaranteed cultivar, ageing period or milling treatment. The selected mill and specification are confirmed for each programme.

Other packs and private label

Bulk bags, retail artwork, alternative pack sizes and private-label proposals can be requested. Technical feasibility, minimum quantity, lead time and commercial terms are reviewed individually; an unlisted format is not a stock commitment.

More than the displayed catalogue

Send the raw material or product you need, desired cut or formulation, preservation/freezing process, intended use and reference sample. The team can review custom manufacturing, packing and cold-chain requirements with the appropriate supplying facility.

Six details for a useful quotation

1. Product, variety or formulation and actual form.
2. Destination country, receiving port and target arrival window.
3. Quantity, retail/bulk pack and private-label requirements.
4. Sample specification and measurable quality criteria.
5. Storage, preparation and cold-chain responsibilities.
6. Importer, label, testing and document requirements.

Prepare a structured enquiry on the website

The website prepares a draft locally in your browser. Review and send it yourself using email or WhatsApp. Preparing a draft is not confirmation that an enquiry has been received.

Destination and language planning

Country buyer guides: UK, Canada, Saudi Arabia, Singapore, UAE and USA

Country guides support procurement planning; they do not approve every Indian product, supplying establishment or consignment. Current requirements must be checked for the exact product and order. New Zealand grape planning remains separate from confirmation of an operational India supply route.
